MATTERS RAISED WITH PERMISSION

Remarks made by a Minister against top leadership of the Congress Party.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Dr. Sahib, do you want to say something?

THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION (DR. MANMOHAN SINGH): Madam, yesterday, before the House was adjourned for the day, some very unpleasant incident took place in the House. A Minister of the Government made some baseless charges against the top leadership of the Congress Party and, naturally, our party was very much exercised about that. The Minister was asked to substantiate them. He has not done that. I understand that you said that you would look into the record and expunge the remarks. But. Madam, what happened yesterday is something which cannot be left at that level. Some most obnoxious remarks were made about the top leadership of the Congress Party, our involvement in the so-called Jogi affair and then this was followed by some of the most obnoxious sloganeering against the leadership of the Congress Party. This is certainly not something which adds to the decorum of the House or facilitates the orderly conduct of the business of the House which we all want. It is in that context that we appealed to the hon. Chairman this morning that some ways should be found and some amends should be made on behalf of the Treasury Benches for what happened yesterday. We would like to know from you what is the status of that request which we made to the hon. Chairman this morning.

SHRI BALBIR K. PUNJ (Uttar Pradesh) : Madam, I want to raise a point.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Yes.
